Direct Cremation Information and Application Form

Is a direct cremation plan suitable for me?

If you do not require a funeral service, or you intend that any commemoration of your life is to be arranged outside the scope of a funeral plan, Freeman Brothers' direct cremation plan may be suitable for your demands and needs. There is no option for an attended funeral. Freeman Brothers reserves the right to choose the crematorium, and the day and time of the cremation. If you require an attended funeral service, our Tiered Funeral Plan or Tailormade Funeral Plan may be suitable for you.

Freeman Brothers will provide you with details about the plan you have purchased for you to share with your Nominated Representative. We suggest that any direct cremation planholder ensures that their wider circle of friends and family know that they have planned a direct cremation with no funeral service. Some people can find it hard to accept that there may be no commemoration of your life and having such a conversation enables preferences to be clearly understood. It also gives the opportunity to check other preferences outside of the scope of your plan with you: for example, if you would be happy for those who knew you to have an informal get-together to remember you after you have died.

Value declaration

Freeman Brothers wants to ensure that customers who choose to pay for their funeral in advance receive good value in comparison to buying an equivalent funeral at the point it is purchased. Our prepaid funeral plans are priced to be cheaper, or cost the same as, an equivalent at-need funeral provided by Freeman Brothers.

The following table shows a comparison between these costs for our Direct Cremation plan:

Price	Equivalent at-need direct cremation cost	Difference
£1900.00	£1933.00	-£33.00

For more information about value comparisons for our direct cremation and tailor-made plans, please see our information brochure and the application forms for the respective products.

The money paid for a prepaid funeral plan is invested in the Freeman Brothers Funeral Trust. There is a charge of £199.00 if the plan is cancelled after 30 days or the moratorium period, for plans sold on an instalment basis.

Customer declaration

Please tick each section to confirm that you have read and understood the information provided. By signing and dating this form, you are confirming that you have understood each section of this application.

I have read the Freeman Brothers Prepaid Funeral Plan brochure and Terms and Conditions. I am aware of the services included in and excluded from my prepaid plan and that the specified funeral is a direct cremation with no option for an attended funeral service.

I confirm that, whilst they have provided me with factual information about the prepaid funeral plan product, Freeman Brothers has not given me financial advice. Using the information provided, I am happy that the chosen product meets my demands and needs.

If you are paying by instalments, please read carefully the section in the Terms and Conditions document under the heading 'If you die before making all the payments' and confirm: I fully understand the consequences, in the event that I die before I have paid for the plan in full, as does my nominated representative (where applicable).

Marketing: Freeman Brothers will contact you from time to time (as required by legislation) with information regarding your purchased product. In addition, we might like to contact you occasionally with other information that may be of interest. Please indicate how you would be happy to receive such information:
